Dawn Yip

Director, Soulbreath Consulting, Singapore

Dawn Yip was an officer of the Singapore Administrative Service from 1994 to 2007, where she held portfolios across a range of agencies – Ministry of National Development, Ministry of Health, Public Service Division (PSD), Civil Service College and Ministry of Trade & Industry (MTI).

Foresight work was a major theme of the latter half of her career. At PSD, she researched and developed national and sectoral scenarios, which were used as a tool to foster greater planning agility in the public sector. She also consulted in scenario planning and its applications to strategy, designing and facilitating workshops for the management teams of many Ministries and government agencies. Later, as lead strategist of MTI's Futures Group, she led a team to carry out future-oriented economic trend analysis and idea generation.

In 2007, Dawn founded Soulbreath Consulting which designs and facilitates leadership and strategy dialogues that yield meaningful and valuable outcomes. She has since had the privilege of serving clients from the government, business and not-for-profit sectors, typically in change management, organisation development, and foresight and strategic planning efforts.

Dawn graduated from Harvard University with a BA (magna cum laude) in Language and Literature. She was a recipient of the President's Scholarship and Overseas Merit Scholarship.
