

Panel 2: Developing Capabilities in Sense-Making

Speaker: Tim Hwang

Founder & CEO, FiscalNote

Tim Hwang currently serves as the Founder and CEO of FiscalNote, using artificial intelligence and big data to deliver immediate predictive analytics of governmental action to pinpoint impact. Tim previously served as the President of the 750,000-member National Youth Association (NYA) and founded the social enterprise, Operation Fly, Inc., for which he was given the 'Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year' award. Prior to heading up the NYA, he was elected to serve as a member of the Montgomery County Public Schools (MCPS) Board of Education, overseeing a budget of over USD$4 billion for 150,000 students and was one of the first field organisers for President Obama's 2008 campaign. Tim holds a Bachelor's degree from Princeton University and is currently on leave from Harvard Business School.

