

The destruction done by bashar. How much longer can this go on?

"I couldn't look my children in the eyes and say, 'I didn't do anything to help,'"

"You're caught between two ideas that you don't want him to be over there, then you understand why he's over there and why's he's doing what he was doing" [Family member]

" I just couldn't stand watching on TV – I had to get off the couch"

"I strongly believe [...] and believe He is going to take care of me no matter what"

Prayed about decision to join "for probably a month or two"

Pt. A man leaves his home to fight for the oppressed people sounds heroic until you add in "Muslim Man". Then he's a terrorist/extremist

"This is the best thing that has happened to me in my life".

"My decision to come out here was like a calling...why not go?"
